Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

County Commissioners this week will settle down for their annual budget studies which must be completed by July 1.

Budget request from all departments ready for commission action, are up about $3 million dollars over last year. Commissioners face the problem of paring expenditures or boosting taxes.

In connection with the budget, commissioner set July 1 as the opening date when the group shall sit as a board of equalization.

In other actions this week the commission:

Decided to seek help from the Florida congressional delegation in an attempt to speed up construction of State Road 9 across the county.

Agreed to seek a change in allocation of federal funds which would allow public works funds to be spent in Palm Beach County at the Loxahatchee recreational area No. 9. The money would be used for improvement of parking facilities and for park and picnic ground development.

Authorized issuing a firework permit to Grimes Mfg. Company of a fire works display over Lake Ida at Delray Beach on July 4th. Heard an attorney general's opinion saying the county commission cannot buy land to be used as sites for volunteer fire department headquarters.

Rescinded a previous action which allowed farm vehicles to use Ramie Road to haul sugar cane from the fields. The action came after a report from the county engineer that 3.2 miles of the road has been resurfaced and should be closed to farm vehicle traffic. Only licensed vehicles will be allowed on the road.

Heard that June 17th had been set as the date for a ground breaking ceremony for a new addition to the county home and hospital.

"Today we need a nation of Minute Men citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life"

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unremitting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

Suggests 4500 Young Folks Look Ahead

TALLAHASSEE—State Industrial Commission Chairman Worley Brown has urged the 45,000 young people graduating from Florida high schools this month to take a sober look at their futures.

"There are many angles to the task of career searching," Brown said, "and every young person should intently appraise every angle that he, his parents, and counselors can discover."

One of the agencies that Brown heads the Florida State Employment Service, placed almost a quarter million in jobs last year. Brown explained that last year this agency alone found jobs for more than 8,000 students seeking permanent employment or summer jobs.

Stressing the point that the educated or skilled worker is dominating the labor market, Brown has urged graduates to "take a sober and discerning look as to which career road you will take."

Delta Air Lines World's 7th Largest

MIAMI—Delta Air Lines now is the world's seventh largest airline, according to rankings published by Airlift Magazine. Previously Delta was 11th among the world's air carriers.

Rankings are based on revenue passenger miles to determine an airline's relative size.

United Air Lines is the world's largest, followed by Pan American, American Air Lines, TWA, Eastern and Air France. BOAC, Trans Canada and Northwest follow Delta in completing the list of the top ten in the world.

Citrus Man Will Talk In Bahamas

LAKELAND—Homer E. Hooks, general manager of the Florida Citrus Commission, will keynote the spring meeting of the Florida Public Relations Association at the Grand Bahama Hotel and Country Club, West End, Grand Bahama Island, June 13-15.

Hooks will be introduced by Walter J. Page, director of public relations for the commission and a past president of FPRPA. Hooks will speak on "Management Takes a Look at Public Relations."

Other speakers during the three-day session will include W. L. Stensgaard, executive director of the Florida World's Fair Authority, and Dr. Irving Muskat, chairman of the Inter-American Center Authority of Miami.

BIRTHS

Her mother is the former Dorothy Chastain of Pahokee and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Chastain of Cairo, Ga. formerly of Pahokee, Fla. The Smiths live in Tifton, Ga.

Trading Stamps Big Deal In U. S.

MIAMI — Approximately 85 per cent of the 54,600,000 households in the United States have trading stamps.

A national survey made for the Sperry and Hutchinson Co. revealed nearly five million more families saved stamps in 1962 than in the previous year.

Stamp saving, according to the survey, gained with consumers in every age, occupation, income and educational level.

Over 85 per cent of persons from 21 to 34 save stamps, 89 per cent in the 35 to 49 age bracket and 78 per cent of those who are 50 or older.

The survey also showed that large families are more inclined to save stamps than small ones. Seventy seven per cent of families with one or two members save stamps; 86 per cent of families with three or four members and 90 per cent of those with five or more members are collectors of trading stamps.

Miss Anita Cowart Plans Announced

Plans have been announced for the wedding of Miss Anita Lee Cowart of Pahokee and Wesley Emile Lerdon of Winter Haven, which will take place at the First Methodist Church in Pahokee, Saturday, July 6, at 7:30 p. m. with Rev. Robert A. Shelley, pastor of the Canal Point Methodist Church, officiating at the double ring, candlelight ceremony.

Miss Cowart has chosen as her attendants, her cousin, Miss Jeanette Spooner of Fort Myers, maid of honor, and Mrs. Gwen Levis, brides matron. Her sister, Miss Debbie Cowart, will be junior bridesmaid.

Carl Jackson, Jr. of Winter Haven will serve as best man, and ushers will be Jan Valk of Winter Haven and Michael Cowart, brother of the bride.

The reception, following the ceremony will be in the social hall of the church. No formal invitations are being issued locally, but all friends of the couple are invited to both the wedding and reception.

Three Prominent Speakers For PTA

TAMPA — Three well known Floridians will address the spring meeting of the Florida Public Relations Association as it convenes at the Grand Bahama Hotel, West End, Grand Bahama Island, June 13-15.

Homer E. Hooks, general manager of the Florida Citrus Commission, has chosen the topic of "Management Looks at Public Relations."

W. L. Stensgaard, executive director of the Florida World's Fair Authority, will describe the program under development for the Florida exhibition at the New York World's Fair.

Dr. Irving Muskat, chairman of the Inter-American Center Authority of Miami will present plans for Interama to the public relations counselors.

Over 200 members of the statewide group are expected to attend the meeting. Alan B. Fields, Jr., of Gulf Power Co., Pensacola, is president of FPRPA.

Officers Slate Is Named By Circle

Mrs. W. S. Cross, Mrs. S. A. Nall and Mrs. J. E. Williams were named as a nominating committee to select a slate of new officers, at the meeting of the Ione Patterson Circle of the Canal Point Baptist Church held Monday afternoon in the recreation building. Mrs. C. E. Jones presided in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. J. L. McCall.

The program, "What is Royal Service?" was presented by Mrs. Cross, Mrs. M. C. Carter, Mrs. Frank O'Connell, Mrs. W. S. Evans and Mrs. S. A. Nall. Mrs. Nellie Reuter and Mrs. Cross gave the devotionals.

The next meeting will be July 8, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Latham, with Mrs. J. H. Bordeaux in charge of the program.

The hostess, Mrs. W. S. Cross, served refreshments to 10 members during the social hour.

Council Of 100 To Keep Up With Space

RONTE VEDRA—The chairman of the Florida Council of 100 made a major issue of higher education in outlining his two-year plan of action in a speech to council members at their second anniversary meeting recently.

Raleigh W. Greene, Jr., told council members that a beeping up and expansion of higher education facilities in Florida to go with the new era of space industry is the "single most critical problem facing our state."

The new chairman of the Council of 100 also proposed that the council sponsor an aerospace seminar for all Florida businessmen and manufacturers, and "Industrial Task Force" to visit businessmen around the nation, and a roundtable of editors from all sections of the state to discuss and recommend action on Florida's problems.

The council chairman, vice president of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of St. Petersburg, predicted that the nation is moving into its greatest era of development and if Florida takes bold steps, it can "become the showcase of the nation."

Caribbean Gardens Well Advertised

NAPLES—The city of Naples, the state of Florida and the Lee County attraction of Caribbean Gardens have been receiving publicity throughout the world from an unexpected source. Puppets are the cause of it all.

Jan and Vlasta Daliber, a famous husband and wife team of puppet-masters visited Caribbean Gardens last spring. The pair made a film, "Pinky and Perky at Caribbean Gardens" which has been shown throughout England and the U. S.

Shown on the BBC television network in Great Britain to some 14 million viewers, copies of the film have also been made available in this country through the cooperation of the Florida Development Commission.

Pinky and Perky are stars of the 65-puppet cast of the film. They are guided through the 33-acre tropical gardens of the attraction by Toco the Toucan, banana-beaked bird which resides at Caribbean Gardens. The production has its own musical score and special sound effects including a Duck Vaudeville.

Top advertising man of Florida is Charles Whitebrook of the Bishop-Green-Fielden agency of Miami who was recently named governor of the Fourth District, Advertising Federation of America.

Members of the Army football team at West Point will view the Florida Citrus Commission's football training film, "The Winning Formula" before opening the 1963 season.

Senior 4-H Girls In —

attend. On Thursday afternoon the delegates will tour the State Capitol, Supreme Court, and other outstanding landmarks in Tallahassee.

Thursday night the Annual State Dress Revue will be held, at which time Penny Pennington will model her ensemble which placed first in the Palm Beach County Dress Revue.

The highlight of the week will be the Candlelighting and installation service for newly elected officers.

One of the 4-H'ers, Nancy Harrington, has been awarded a Short Course Scholarship from the State Department of Agriculture for outstanding work in her poultry project.

Linda Day and Janie Drake will both attend business sessions, since they are State Council Delegates. Palm Beach County will submit Linda Day's name for the office of District Treasurer.

The outstanding training the girls receive during the week will help them to continue to be good citizens and leaders in their community and county.

In July each delegate will give a special report to the County Junior Short Course.
